

Yes! Athletics Brand Ambassador Program FAQ

Why join our program?

Community:

- In our brand ambassador program, you'll be connected with other 50+ girls and parents all across the country. We welcome everyone of all cultural identities, goals, paces, and experience in our team. We are a family! 😊

Connections:

- Yes! Athletics have ins and outs to different coaches and teams across the country. With you being in our program, recruiters will be able to recognize you easier.

Perks:

- You have the opportunity to make money. You'll also have access to free and discounted gear. And many more...

Investing:

- As you are in the program, you are nonetheless supporting girls wrestling and we are more than thankful.

What do we ask?

- Loyalty to our brand, Yes! Athletics.
- Connect with the girls and families within our community. We want to build it and relate to one another.
- Engage with one another on Band App
- Continue to spread awareness on girls' wrestling
- Have fun!

Are there any requirements to join our program?

We usually do not have any special requirements, however, there are some that must be addressed.

- You must be active on social media before joining our program. It does not matter if you have 30 followers or 10,000 followers. As long as you've been posting.
- You are not in any other competitor's contracts.
- You have appropriate social media. We have zero tolerance for any hate, discrimination, bullying, etc.
- You are always welcomed. Whether you just started out, or have been wrestling for 10+ years.
- Positive attitudes! We love to have fun, and so should you!

What are the membership terms?

When you are in, it'll be a yearly membership. It will be automatically renewed unless either party says otherwise.